the opportunity to ask questions and engage in a productive dialogue regarding their child's academic progress.

Address by Principal Dr. Bane: At the end of the first session, the Principal, Dr. Bane, addressed the parents and students, assuring them of the college's commitment to providing quality education and fostering a conducive learning environment. His address focused on the importance of collaboration between parents, students, and the institution to achieve academic success.

Conclusion of Session I – Vote of Thanks: The session was formally concluded by Prof. Bonny Sharoan, the event anchor, who delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the participants, parents, and faculty for their active involvement and support.

Session II – Individual Parent-Teacher Interactions: The second session of the Parent's Meet allowed for one-on-one interactions between parents, the class coordinator, mentors, and subject teachers. This provided an opportunity for parents to gain a deeper understanding of their child's overall performance, attendance, and progress in individual subjects. Teachers and mentors offered valuable insights and suggestions for improvement where needed.

Feedback Collection:

To conclude the Parent's Meet, feedback was collected from parents regarding the session, the overall semester, and their suggestions for enhancing student support. The feedback collected is valuable for future planning and improvements.

Event Coordination and Participation:

The Parent's Meet 2024-25 was well-coordinated by Prof. S.G. Kerkar, with active participation from all faculty members, who contributed significantly to the success of the event.

Conclusion:

The Parent's Meet 2024-25 was a successful and informative event that fostered effective communication between the college and the parents. It provided a platform for addressing academic concerns, recognizing student achievements, and ensuring a collaborative effort towards student success. The meeting ended on a positive note, with parents expressing satisfaction and appreciation for the transparency and engagement throughout the event.
